Clubs & Organizations

Band

Band allows students to develop their musical talent in the instrumental area. Middle School Band meets daily during Reading time. Concerts are held throughout the year. Band signups are held in the spring for the following school year.

Band meets the entire year throughout the week.

Keith Dossett, Instructor

Cheerleading

The purpose of cheerleading is to teach the importance of leadership during athletic events. Cheerleaders support the athletic teams and keep morale up throughout their seasons. Tryouts are held in the spring, in which participants perform in front of trained judges and are scored accordingly. The highest scoring participants become members of the squads and are committed to cheer for the entire school year.

Winnerly Jeffers, coach

Choir

Choir allows students to develop and demonstrate their talent in vocal music. Middle school choir is an audition only choir that meets twice a week during Reading. They will perform at Christmas and the spring show. Other performances will be during school hours. Choir signups are held in spring for the next school year. Choir meets the entire year throughout the week.

Laura Staffeld, instructor

Hoosier Academic Spell Bowl

Spell Bowl provides students interested in spelling competition the opportunity to showcase their talent in spelling. Practices are held in the fall, and one major competition is held in October. Sign up with the coach in the fall. Meet after school.

Shannon Fuhs & Tammy Brown, coaches

Middle School Academic Team

The Middle School Academic Team gives students the opportunity to compete against students of other schools in various academic contests. The team participates in the Southern Indiana Middle School Invitational Academic Bowl Quiz Bowl in the spring. Interested students should sign up with the coach. Meet after school.

FFA

Join the FFA to get involved in one of the most action packed leadership organizations in school! FFA offers the chance to participate in night meetings, competitions, leadership events and careers. Meetings are once a month.

Paul Steinmetz, sponsor

Natural Helpers

Natural Helpers are students who help their peers with problems through active listening, problem solving and referral skills. Students participate in retreat training and then ongoing monthly training opportunities throughout the year. Natural Helpers are nominated by the student body and selected by the advisors.

Julie Becher, advisor

Junior Optimists

The Junior Optimist Club gives students the opportunity to become more involved as a leader in our community and our school. Meetings are twice a month.

Pam Swader, advisor

Student Council

The Student Council allows students to learn and develop valuable leadership skills. Members help to organize and recycle plastic bottle caps, a canned food drive, and collect box tops. Students are selected by their teachers. Student Council members must also maintain a 2.0 GPA or higher.

Paula Muller, advisor

VOICE/S.A.D.D.

S.A.D.D., (Students Against Destructive Decisions) and VOICE, are part of national organizations dedicated to helping young people make healthy choices. The S.A.D.D. and VOICE organization seek out student leaders who are interested in addressing issues that teens face today such as underage drinking, smoking, drug abuse and peer pressure to name a few. Students participate in various prevention activities, as well as, scheduled monthly campaigns such as Friendship Week, Red Ribbon Week, and the Great American Smokeout. Interested students in 7th and 8th grade can sign up for participation in the fall.
